

Jesus says, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

...It is not that the harvest is small – God's harvest is ever abundant. It is that the laborers are few. The laborers are few because we are looking for a safe way of following Jesus, and Jesus is telling us he is looking for lambs to send out among the wolves!

The harvest is waiting. Will we be God's laborers? Over the next week, I am encourage you, And I hope that we can spend time reflecting on what else in our lives we need to unpack.
